Article 7: MEETINGS

- A. Meetings follow Robert's Rules of Order.
- B. There shall be three types of meetings: general meetings, executive meetings, and annual general meetings (AGMs).
- C. The regulations regarding each type of meeting are as follows:
 - i. General council meetings:
 - (a) Quorum for general council meetings shall be (50% + 1) of the council members.
 - (b) In case a council member is not able to attend the general council meeting due to unavoidable circumstances, the member shall convey regrets to the Chair of the council, and may nominate a council member as 'proxy' to cast votes on his/her behalf. Any council member may hold and use no more than TWO (2) proxy votes at any given meeting. For clarity, this means that each council member can only vote a maximum of THREE (3) times [1 regular vote and 2 proxy votes]. The functions of the proxy shall be as follows:
 - (1) The proxy shall be included as the absentee member's presence in the quorum count;
 - (2) In voting on any motions during the meeting (as highlighted by Article 7(C)(1)(e)), the council member nominated as the proxy shall:
 - I. Base the proxy vote on the directions of the absentee council member; or,
 - II. Use his/her discretion and best judgement to vote on behalf of the absentee council member.
 - (c) Any member of the general membership shall be welcome to attend the general meetings.
 - (d) The general membership shall be provided opportunity to approve society financial statements/budget and goals/objectives for the coming year at the Society's AGM.
 - (e) Voting on motions put forth at general meetings must go before the general membership.
 - (f) Voting shall be conducted in one of three ways:
 - (1) Show of hands;
 - (2) Roll call, if requested by any member of the Council; or,
 - (3) Secret ballot, if requested by any member of the Council;
 - (g) A majority vote is needed to pass a motion (a majority signifying 50%+1 of all voting members in attendance).
 - (h) The Secretary of the Society shall be responsible for giving advance notice of all motions to be voted on at any meeting not less than FORTY-EIGHT (48) hours before the meeting, and this notice must be given to all members of the society.
 - ii. Executive meetings:

- (a) Executive meetings shall be used at the discretion of the executive to ensure the smooth operation of the Society.
 - (b) All members of the Society are permitted to attend Executive meetings, even though notice of the meeting need not be given.
 - (c) Any motions must be voted on by the general membership, and as such motions cannot be passed during Executive meetings.
- iii. Annual general meetings (AGM's)
- (a) Quorum for an AGM shall be all Executive members along with 10% of the general membership.
 - (b) In case a council member is not able to attend the AGM due to extreme circumstances, including but not limited to illness, thesis presentation, conference travel, etc., the member shall convey regrets to the President, and may nominate a council member as 'proxy' to cast votes on his/her behalf. Any council member may hold and use no more than TWO (2) proxy votes at any given meeting. For clarity, this means that each council member can only vote a maximum of THREE (3) times [1 regular vote and 2 proxy votes]. The functions of the proxy shall be as follows:
 - (1) The proxy shall be included as the absentee member's presence in the quorum count;
 - (2) In voting on any motions during the meeting, the council member nominated as the proxy shall:
 - I. Base the proxy vote on the directions of the absentee council member; or,
 - II. Use his/her discretion and best judgement to vote on behalf of the absentee council member.
 - (c) An AGM must be called at least once per academic year by the President through the Society's online channels.
 - (d) There will be at least one AGM during the months of February or March, during which elections may take place (see Article 8).
 - (e) Any additional AGM's may be called at the request of all Executive, or at the request of a member of the general membership with a petition for an AGM signed by 50% of the general members.
 - (f) Constitutional amendments can only be made at an AGM (see Article 11).
 - (g) Voting on motions must go before the general membership.
 - (h) Voting will be conducted via a show of hands, though any member may request that the motion be voted on by secret ballot. If any one member requests this for any motion, voting must be done by secret ballot.
 - (i) A majority vote of those present and voting (including proxies) is needed to pass a motion.
 - (j) Notice of an AGM must be given to all members not less than one week before the AGM, and the Secretary is responsible for delivering this notice.
- iv. Emergency meetings
- (a) Any emergency meeting required for an immediate or urgent decision shall be called on TWENTY-FOUR (24) hours notice, to:
 - (1) The Council by way of online council communication channels.

(2) The Society's membership by way of e-mail.

Article 8: ELECTIONS

- A. Elections shall be held no later than March 31 of each year.
- B. The President shall be responsible for overseeing elections.
- C. If the President wishes to re-run for any position, then the Vice-President Internal shall act as Election Chair.
- D. In the event that both the President and Vice-President Internal wish to run for any position, then the Vice-President External shall act as Election Chair.
- E. In the event that the President, Vice-President Internal and Vice-President External wish to run for any position, the council shall select an Election Chair from the general membership.
- F. Nominations for elections can be given to the Election Chair two weeks prior to the date of the elections.
- G. Voting shall be conducted by secret ballot.
- H. Election ballots shall always have an option to spoil the ballot.
- I. All members, except honorary members, are eligible to vote for all elected positions.
- J. The specific election process will be outlined in the By-Laws, in accordance with Section 6(3)(e) of the DSU Society Policy.
- K. In the event that a nominee fails to be elected to a position, while they are no longer eligible for that specific position until the next general election, they may be eligible for another Council position, in the event of a by-election or as determined by the Council.
- L. Each member can hold at most ONE (1) executive position at a time.

Article 9: IMPEACHMENT

- A. No member of the executive may be recalled without just cause, or in any manner not specified in this constitution.
- B. Just cause is defined by this constitution as:
 - i. Failing to attend FOUR (4) consecutive executive or general meetings.
 - ii. Failing to fulfil the majority of their mandates as dictated by this constitution, within reasonable limits, and without reasonable excuse.
 - iii. Conduct likely to result de-ratification of the Society, or conduct likely to bring the Society into disrepute.
 - iv. In the case of the Vice-President External, failing to submit a request for Ratification before November 1st of the year of their Vice-Presidency without reasonable excuse.
 - v. Other gross misconduct.
- C. Impeachment shall be a two step process:
 - i. Introduction of the impeachment vote:
 - (a) Any member of the Council may put forth a motion for an impeachment vote; or,
 - (b) Any member of the Society may put forth a motion to impeach provided they have a petition signed by 25% of current members, and this petition can also serve to request an AGM as directed by Article 7(C)(iii).
 - ii. The Impeachment vote:
 - (a) A vote to impeach a Council member can only be decided at an AGM (as directed by Article 7(C)(iii)).
 - (b) Advance notice of a motion to impeach must be given to the member up for impeachment, and that member must have the ability to speak in their defence before the vote is taken.
 - (c) The notice of the AGM shall include any motions for impeachment.
 - (d) A vote of (2/3)rd of the membership present and voting is required to impeach a Council member. Voting will be conducted by secret ballot.

Article 10:
RESIGNATIONS AND VACANCIES

- A. All resignations of Council members shall be made in writing, addressed to the president, and submitted at the next regular meeting of Council for action therein. In the case of the President's resignation, the letter shall be addressed to the Vice-President Internal.
- B. Should an elected position not be filled during the initial elections, the position is to be filled by the newly elected Council. A secret ballot vote is to be held at the next Council meeting. This elected member has the same rights and responsibilities as if they had been elected in the initial elections.
- C. Should a vacancy occur in the Council the runner up in the elections will be appointed, provided they received more votes than the None of the above option. If no one is available for the position, the Council shall as soon as reasonably possible appoint an elections officer for the sole purpose of overseeing a by-election. Council shall open a nomination period of not less than TWO (2) days, followed by an optional day of campaigning, and, finally, ONE (1) day of voting. Voting shall in all other respects conform as nearly as is reasonably possible to Article 8.

Article 11: CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

- A. In the event that the Society cannot be ratified as a result of the content of this constitution, the current Executive have the ability to make such changes as are deemed necessary by the Vice-President Internal of the Dalhousie Student Union. These changes become official upon ratification.
 - i. If any member of the Society wishes to contest the changes, they may do so at the next AGM, or petition the President to call one as per Article 7(C)(iii).
- B. With the exception of circumstances in Article 11(A), amendments to this constitution are subject to the following regulations:
 - i. Amendments to the constitution can only be made at a general meeting, which could be an AGM or a special general meeting.
 - ii. Motions to amend the Constitution must be presented by interested members of the general membership to the Vice-President Internal of the Society no less than one-week before the general meeting at which the constitution will be amended.
 - iii. All voting members of the general membership, except honorary members, are entitled to vote on amendments to the constitution.
 - iv. Voting will be conducted via a show of hands, though any member may request that the motion be voted on by secret ballot. If any one member requests this for any motion, voting must be done by secret ballot.
 - v. A $(2/3)^{rd}$ vote of those present and voting, including proxies, is required to pass a motion to amend the constitution.

Article 12: FINANCES

- A. As stated in Article 4, the President, Vice-President Internal, and Treasurer will be the signing officers of the Society.
- B. At least two signing officers must sign every cheque from the bank account of the Society.
- C. An executive officer cannot sign a cheque made out to his or her self.
- D. Each newly elected Executive is responsible for setting a budget within the first month after the Council takes office.
- E. The budget shall be created each year by the Treasurer, and shall be passed by the executive at an Executive meeting to the Council for approval. The Council shall then motion to approve the budget at a general Council meeting.
- F. No less than TWENTY-FIVE (25) percent of the estimated total annual budget shall be set aside as an Emergency Fund. This money may not be accessed without a Council vote and the reasons for accessing these funds shall be reviewed by an appointed Committee as described in Article 15.
- G. The estimated total annual budget shall be based on the most accurate registration information available for that year as well as all remaining funds from the previous year, including the Emergency Fund.
- H. There should be no carry over of any deficit from one semester to the next. In the case that there is a deficit, the deficit incurred must be explained and at the least, steps shall be taken to balance the next semester's budget.
- I. In situations where a deficit exists when a new Executive is entering, the previous Council shall make available all Council funds, including unspent Emergency Funds, to help reduce or eliminate said deficit. The previous Council Executive shall be required to defend their reasons for incurring any such deficit to the general membership of the Society at the AGM. In the situation where a surplus exists at the end of a term, all remaining funds shall be passed on to the incoming Council.
- J. Refer to the Dalhousie Student Union's Treasurer's Handbook for proper procedures.

Article 13:
COUNCIL TRANSITIONS

- A. End of the Year Reports are to be submitted to the transition officer via electronic mail or other reasonable method of their choosing prior to the end of their term in office. The transition officer may set an earlier deadline of their choosing, no earlier than the last meeting of the Council.
- B. Non-voting Council members are exempt from composing an End of the Year Report.
- C. Voting Council members shall not receive any honoraria for fulfilling their duties on the Council.
- D. Status as a Councillor shall not affect qualification for any Society reimbursement or financial support for attending conferences or workshops.

Article 14:
ELECTRONIC VOTING ON MOTIONS

- A. Voting on motions can be done via online ballot using a method that authenticates voting members of Council.
- B. Voting must adhere to Article 7(C)(i).
- C. The text of the motion to be voted via online ballot shall be posted SEVENTY-TWO (72) hours before the vote.
- D. The voting period shall be open for at least TWENTY-FOUR (24) hours.
- E. If the vote does not pass, the motion will be presented at the next general Council meeting.

Article 15: COMMITTEES

When a Committee is formed as mandated by this Constitution, the following conditions shall be met:

- A. A minimum of THREE (3) members; and,
- B. A majority of the Committee must not be on Council.

Article 16:
DESCRIPTION OF BY-LAWS

By-Laws shall have the following characteristics:

- A. They shall regulate events and issues in order to facilitate the routine operation of the Society; and
- B. Where applicable, all effects and consequences shall be subject first to the Articles of this constitution.

BY-LAWS

A. Amendments to By-Laws
